Where deductions have been made, as in these compilations, errors will be found; but corrections will be welcome and will be noted in any future revision.

(1) GEORGE PARKER, born _____; died _____, 1758. We list him tentatively as a probable son of the first known, and is a brother of John. He was in the same section with land on Patterson's Creek.

He died in 1758. His will was made February 27, 1757, and proved in Hampshire County, Virginia, December 13, 1758.

He married Ann _____. She survived him.

In March, 1756, he received pay for two hogs and 510 lbs. tobacco supplied the militia. Also, in the same month, he was paid for one cow as assignee of Jas. Fowler. (Hening's Statutes)

After her husband's death, the widow leased her land to Benjamin Parker, 11/1/1730. (L. B. 1, Pages 46 and 47.)

His will is included in this compilation largely as a matter of record.

(3) JOHN PARKER obtained from Robert Taliaferro 1,359 acres described as in the "Great Fork of the Rappahannock". It had been granted to Francis Kutley by Lord Fairfax June 12, 1749, and was sold by Kutley and his wife, Margaret, July 17, 1751. The lease by Taliaferro to John Parker was dated and recorded April 16, 1760, and the deed was dated and recorded April 16, 1760, and the deed was dated and recorded April 17, 1760. (Culpeper Co., Va., D. B. "C", Pages 454 and 456) It is important to identify this land so as to follow its disposition in the deed of partition between John Parker's heirs.

John Parker's will set out above did not identify by name any of his children, and mentioned only one grandchild.

He married Elizabeth _____. After his death, she married Thomas McGuire. Note that this Thomas McGuire was one of the securities named in the administration of the estate of (2) Benjamin Parker.

The ambiguity of (3) John Parker's will threw the administration into a state of uncertainty, and all of the living heirs were called in to agree upon an equitable division of the estate. This was in the form of a Deed of Partition, made June 12, 1765, recorded in Hampshire County, Va., Deed Book 1, Page 282, the same date.

It is important to get the correct recitals from this deed so as to avoid confusion as to the various descendants of (3) John Parker, so it is here set out in full:

So many inaccuracies have crept into the biographies of this family that we go into more detail than usual. This will aid future searchers in the further clarification of this line.

(3) JOHN PARKER was in a suit versus Isaac Pennington in Frederick County, Virginia, 2/13/1750. (O.E. 3, Page 400)

(H. U. Maxwell, in his "History of Hampshire Co., Va.", (W.Va.), incorrectly credits Robert Parker as the head of the Hampshire family, but this, evidently, is not correct.)

He received a patent from Lord Fairfax, dated June 8, 1749, for 312 acres of land, and this land eventually passed to his son, Nathaniel.

(3) JOHN PARKER had:

- * 30. ROBERT PARKER, born _____; died 1803.
- * 31. RICHARD PARKER, born _____; died _____.
- * 32. NATHANIEL PARKER, born C 1730; died _____.

(10) BENJAMIN PARKER, born _____; died _____, 1800. He received one-half of the land owned by his father on Patterson's Creek.

Apparently, he was the Benjamin Parker whose estate was appraised in Hampshire County, Virginia, October 3, 1800, recorded February 20, 1809, and a report thereon, made 10/6/1809, was recorded 2/16/1813. (See W.B. 5, Pages 8 and 363.)

He married _____.

(30) ROBERT PARKER, born _____; died _____, 1808. In the absence of further data, we accept Maxwell's "History of Hampshire County" as authority for the statement that this man's children were as set out below:

(32) NATHANIEL PARKER, born C 1730; died 1803. We copy his biography from the book, "Historic Sumner County, Tennessee". (Page 287)

"Nathaniel Parker was born in Hampshire County, Virginia, about 1730. He served under Washington in his attack on the French at Fort Duquesne. He also served under Captain Jack against the Indians. He was fond of adventure, as were most men of his day, and wandered through the wilderness of Pennsylvania and Northwestern Virginia, fearless of Indian foes. He may be classed with the "long hunters," as he spent much of his time hunting and exploring, being out often by himself for long periods of time. He made several journeys from his native State to the Cumberland country and back. While in Sumner County he spent most of his time at Greenfield. Before the Indian troubles ceased he removed his young children (his wife being dead) to Sumner County and built a house near Greenfield. That house is still standing and is occupied by Mr. Robert Bryson. Five years after the death of Colonel Anthony Bledsoe, Mr. Parker married his widow, he being at the time 63 and she 60 years of age. He died in 1803 and was buried near the site of the old Morgan fort, on lands now belonging to Dr. Johnson.

"Nathan Parker had seven sons. The three eldest, John, Thomas, and Richard, married sisters, Misses Rogers, members of the same family as General George Rogers Clark. The eldest, John, never came to Tennessee. The other sons were: Nathaniel, Jr., Isaac, Aaron and Robert. From these sons of Nathaniel Parker have descended many prominent people of Sumner County and elsewhere."

Evidently, he was the Nathaniel Parker who received pay for eleven days wagonage and for flour and salt furnished by militia during the Revolutionary War. (Clerk's Book, Page 4 and 5.)

Nathaniel Parker deeded his land in Hampshire County, Virginia, before settling in Tennessee as follows:

3/1/1791 - 29 acres to David James, Jr. Part of patent to Matthew Rogers, 6/10/1749. (D.B. 8, Page 212.)

3/1/1792 - 500 acres on Patterson's Creek to William Armstrong. This land was patented to him.

3/1/1792 - 312 acres on Patterson's Creek to William Armstrong, his part of the land from his father's estate.
191 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land originally patented to Matthew Rogers by Lord Fairfax.

Nathaniel Parker appears in the Hampshire County, Virginia, tax lists, 1789-1793, but not thereafter. Part of the time Nathaniel, Jr., appears with many slaves.

(50) JOHN PARKER, born September 6, 1758; died May 19, 1836.

He was born in Baltimore County, Maryland, and was killed by the Indians in the Fort Parker Massacre. This was near what is now Groesbeck, Limestone County, Texas.

Perhaps no better method of reciting the events of this pioneer's life could be devised than to quote from his sworn application for a pension for his Revolutionary War services. This application was made in Coles County, Illinois, May 6, 1833. At the time, he was 74 years of age and was preparing to start upon his "great adventure", at a time of life when men are ready to retire from all activities of a strenuous nature.

The application and supporting data follow:

Pension Application of (CO) John Parker, made in Coles County, Illinois, May 8, 1833. (Pension Application C-32435.)

State of Illinois. Personally appeared before the Judge in open Coles County Jet. Court (on this 8th day of May in the year 1833) in the county aforesaid the same now sitting and constituting the Circuit Court of said County, John Parker a resident of the United States of America in the county of Coles and state of Illinois aforesaid, whose age is seventy-four years (74) and who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832.

That the said Parker entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. Said Parker volunteered under Captain Fieldo, Col. Slaughter commanding the Regiment P in General Greene's Brigade. He entered the service of the United States in the year 1777, month of October--the day of the month not being recollected and was discharged from said service in twelve months afterwards. That again he entered the service as a drafted man under Captain Calier of the Regiment commanded by Col. Alexander--the month and day not being recollected when he entered said service, but recollects distinctly that it was in the latter end of the year 1779--that he marched through Winchester, Virginia, thence through Beison town Pennsylvania and was stationed on a creek called "Tea Mill" in that state. That he continued in said service during the period above mentioned respectively for the term of twelve months, making two entire years.

The Declarant was in no engagement with the enemy and has no documentary evidence of said service having been rendered by him--for reason that the same has been lost for many years and that there is no person living within his knowledge by whom he can prove the existence of said documentary evidence. His discharge was given to him by Capt. Calier.

That this Declarant was born September 6th in the year 1758, Baltimore County, State of Maryland, and that the only record of his age now in existence is taken from his father's family Bible, now in his possession.

The Declarant lives in Culpepper (sic.) County, Va., when he engaged in the service of the United States. He has lived since that time seventeen years in Georgia; that he removed from thence into Hickman County, Tenn., thence to the Territory (now state) of Illinois in the year 1815, where he has ever since resided. That he recollects the names of no continental or militia officers, those above named excepted. He now lives in the County of Coles in the state of Illinois aforesaid. That the following gentlemen a clergyman and others have long known him and will make the certificate required, with whom consequently he is well acquainted.-- Miles Hart and Wm. Woodall. That there is no other person to his knowledge by whom he can prove his said services than Griffin Tipsonard.

He kindly relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll or agency of any state. Sworn and subscribed the day and year afd.

John Parker.

I Griffin Tipsonard do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with John Parker the above named applicant and that I am personally known to his services as a revolutionary soldier, as he in his declaration has therein alledged & declared, I being in the army with him. Sworn and subscribed this day and Year aforesaid.

THE

JOURNAL OF THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF MEDICINE

Unquestionably, John Parker came from the John Parker line which settled in what is now Hampshire County, W. Va., then Virginia. That John had been in Culpeper County where he acquired 1359 acres of land from Robert Taliaferro, April 17, 1760.

We have seen that (60) John Parker was residing in Culpeper County, Virginia, when he enlisted. He married Sally White in that county. She is reported as the daughter of Benjamin White. A Benjamin White was a captain of the Orange County, Va., militia in May, 1778, and Orange adjoins Culpeper County. (Orange O.B. for 1778, Page 90)

After the Revolutionary War and after his marriage, he continued to reside in Culpeper for several years. Some of his children were born there.

From Virginia, he moved to Georgia where he remained 17 years. He was in Franklin and Elbert Counties.

From Georgia, he moved to Tennessee where he settled in Hickman County where he remained until 1815, when he moved to Illinois.

His location in Illinois was first in Crawford County, but the establishment of Coles County attracted him and he became one of its earliest settlers. He is reported as having been the first known white settler to build a home in Coles County, Illinois.

He remained in that county until 1834, when the urge for new land and a new adventure became too strong for him to resist.

His oldest son, (120) Daniel Parker, had launched himself as a preacher and had established more than a local reputation. He affiliated himself with the "predestinarian" off-shoot of the Baptist Church, as then established. The father, (60) John Parker, had, likewise, established quite a reputation as a preacher. From this activity, he derived his name Elder John Parker.

Seeking new fields, some of the sons went to Texas in 1832. That territory then was under Mexican rule. They learned that they could not establish a Protestant Church there, so they returned to Illinois. One son, Daniel, had learned that by organizing his Church outside of Texas he could then transplant it there and this he did. (See "The History of the Baptists of Texas", by B. F. Riley, 1907.)

With the newly organized "Pilgrim Predestinarian Regular Baptist Church", Daniel moved with his family and belongings to Grimes County, Texas. Despite denials by the Orthodox Baptist Church, this man established the first Baptist Church in Texas and the first recognized Protestant Church in that territory now embraced within the great state of Texas.

The minutes of that early congregation have been preserved. In them, we see the reflection of the founder's character. Despite efforts of orthodox critics to disparage him, it is shown he was a fighter in the cause he espoused, and that he did not know the meaning of the words "fear" and "fail".

With his "flock" came the greater part of his father's family. They established themselves in what was known as "Parker's Fort" or Fort Parker, near what is now Groesbeck, Limestone County, Texas.

Here Elder John set about to establish an orderly pioneer settlement in what was a vast empire of wilderness.

May 19, 1876, a band of Comanche Indians appeared at the settlement and began a merciless attack upon the inhabitants of which there were 34 in the "Fort" with others at work in nearby fields. The story of the massacre is an epic without an equal, and stranger than any story of fiction could be.

When the attackers had completed their dastardly work and fled, a check-up showed the following:

Elder John Parker, fighting to the last, had been killed.

"Granny" Parker, his wife, had been stripped and scalped and left for dead. She survived, however, until shortly after the survivors reached San Antonio, May 26, 1876.

Silas M. Parker, a son, had been killed, and two of his children--John and Cynthia Ann--were carried into captivity. Two other children escaped.

Benjamin F. Parker, a son, had been killed.

The married daughter of James W. Parker, a son, and her son were carried away.

This grand old patriarch died as he lived, fighting for the right and defying all that he classed as wrong.

He was a brother of Susan Parker, who married John Daughetee, and they were, in turn, the great, great grandparents of the compiler. It is to perpetuate this tragic story, so often repeated to me in my childhood years, that I set down these basic facts, so that future searchers may avoid the difficulties encountered by the compiler when he began the search for confirmatory evidence.

Ample documentary evidence is now available, and the following list will afford a fairly complete bibliography of publications of record:

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN: I, Robert Parker, of Hampshire County, State of Virginia, being in a low state of health at present, but in my perfect senses and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of human life and that necessary for all persons so to dispose of their affairs in their

Later he moved to Sumner County, Tenn., where he served about ten years as pastor of the Bledsoe Creek Church. This was in the county and neighborhood where his grandfather and several Parker kin resided.

From Sumner County he moved to Illinois in 1817, settling near Palestine, Crawford County. He served as State Senator from Crawford County for two terms.

He probably was the same John Parker as is covered by the following records:

Although he is not named as a brother, it is probable he was one. He left a will in Fayette County, Ky., made 3/4/1800; proved April, 1800.

The will doesn't name his children, only his wife, Elizabeth. Then June 8, 1818, in Franklin County, there was a division of the estate of Robert Parker, and this is deduced to be the same estate.

They had:

* 50. ROLAND PARKER, born B 1800; died A 1818.
